

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP Mitigating seabird bycatch

10TH October 2023
REAL MARINA HOTEL | OLHÃO, PORTUGAL

ilhas
barreira

PROGRAM

THEME	TIME	SESSION	SPEAKER
Welcome & Intro- duction	9:30	Welcome	Joana Andrade, SPEA
		Exercise	Catarina Isidoro, University of Évora
		Seabird bycatch in Portuguese southern fisheries (Algarve) - Problems and Solutions	Magda Frade, CCMAR
		Bycatch Regulation in the EU: good intentions, little action?	Anouk Puymartin, BirdLife Europe & Central Asia
Trialling mitigation measures in gillnets	10:45	How to mitigate seabird bycatch from gillnet fisheries? - Experiences from Iceland and the United-Kingdom	Yann Rouxel, RSPB
		Impact of gillnet fisheries on seabirds – UNCATCH, preventing bycatch of seabirds in Lithuanian Baltic Sea waters	Julius Morkūnas, LOD
Coffee Break	11:15
Trialling mitigation measures in gillnets	11:45	Tests of bycatch mitigations in the Greenland lumpfish fishery	Søren Post, Greenland Institute of Natural Resources
		Modified gillnets and fish traps in the Baltic Sea – Alternative gear research in difficult times	Kim Detloff, NABU
Lunch	12:30
Trialling mitigation measures in longline	14:00	How to measure the effect of mitigation measures on rare bycatch events	Kim-Magnus Barum and Signe Christensen-Dalsgaard, NINA
		Seabird bycatch mitigation measures in the Spanish longline fleet	Lucía Soliño, SEO/BirdLife
		Seabird bycatch in the demersal longline fleet in the Gran Sol: latest studies	Paulo Lago, SEO/BirdLife
Coffee Break	15:15
From pilot trials to regulation	15:45	Decades of mitigation measure development to reduce seabird bycatch in Brazil	Tatiana Neves, Projeto Albatroz
		The ATF experience developing mitigation measures: from pilot trials to regulations	Dimas Gianuca, ATF/High-seas
		Closing remarks	Daniel Mitchell, BirdLife Europe & Central Asia
Workshop Ends	17h00

CO-FUNDING

COORDINATION

PARTNERS

